Honorable Richard Mitchison
Member of Parliament
London, England

Dear Mr. Mitchison:

Professor Lederberg is out of town on an extended trip to Japan. In his absence his secretary passed on to me your letter of April 3. Mrs. Levinthal and two of our children, David and Judy, ages 13 and 11, will be staying at the Hotel Rembrandt, Thurloe Place, London S.W. 7. They will be arriving on July 5 and staying for about a week so that any time Monday, July 9 through Thursday, July 12, would be wonderfully convenient to take advantage of your very kind offer. I, however, will be attending a conference in Liege at that time. While my wife and children will be most interested and thankful for this opportunity of visiting the House of Commons, I certainly would like to be sure that their visit does not impose on your time.

Thank you very much for your help in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Elliott Levinthal
